Fillmore Jazz Festival 2024 Celebrates 35 Years of Music and Culture on July 6 and 7

San Francisco, CA, July 2, 2024 - The Fillmore Jazz Festival returns for its 35th year on July 6th and 7th, 2024, promising a weekend filled with music, arts, and community spirit along historic Fillmore Street. Spanning twelve blocks on Fillmore from Jackson to Eddy, this year’s festival features an exciting lineup across multiple music venues, showcasing the talents of 25+ local and nationally-renowned artists.

The two main stages are located outdoors on Fillmore Street at the cross streets of California and Eddy Street, with additional performances along the street. Music enthusiasts can also enjoy intimate indoor concerts at Calvary Presbyterian Church and Jones Memorial Methodist Church. The festival features more than 150 booths showcasing arts and crafts from local artisans, community organizations, and 25 food vendors. The event runs from 10 am to 6 pm each day.

The event is the West Coast’s largest free jazz festival and attracts more than 100,000 attendees annually. The 2024 Festival kicks off with a special concert honoring three Bay Area musical legends: "Remembering Calvin Keys, Bobby Hutcherson & Joe Henderson." This tribute takes place on Saturday, July 6, from noon to 1:30 p.m. at the Sugar Pie DeSanto Eddy Street Stage, named for a beloved performer from Fillmore’s days as the Harlem of the West.

Renowned vocalists Paula West and Kim Nalley headline the Saturday lineup on the Mary Stallings California Stage, named for another longtime local with an international following. The Sunday lineup is a triple treat, with The Dynamic Miss Faye Carrol, Kenny Washington and Fillmore’s own Kim Nalley.

Mayor London Bred will be honoring former Mayor Willie Brown’s contribution to the Fillmore Jazz community at a ceremony on the California Stage at 4pm on Saturday.
